The musical score consists of four staves of music:

- Soprano (soli): The top staff, written in treble clef, 4/4 time, and F major (no sharps or flats). It features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes.
- Piano: The second staff from the top, written in treble clef, 4/4 time, and F major. It includes harmonic information with Roman numerals (I, II, V) and key changes to G major and C major.
- Bass (A): The third staff from the top, written in bass clef, 4/4 time, and F major. It provides harmonic support with sustained notes.
- Bass (F): The bottom staff, written in bass clef, 4/4 time, and F major. It also provides harmonic support.
